階段

The diagram shows a horizontal line representing a stage. Above the line, the text "(ステージ)" is centered. Below the line, there are three blocks of data. The first block is yellow and contains the numbers 1 and 6. The second block is red and contains the numbers 6, 28, and 29. The third block is pink and contains the numbers 29 and 201. On the left side, a red arrow points up from the text "階段" (Stage) to the start of the first block. On the right side, a red arrow points down from the end of the third block to the text "階段" (Stage).
